

Maine Climate Council
Natural and Working Lands Working Group Meeting
Friday, November 1, 2019; 9:00 - Noon
Deering Building, Room 101, 90 Blossom Lane, Augusta

Desired Outcomes

By the end of this meeting, we will have:

- Agreed upon meeting schedule, norms and participant expectations
- Reviewed the charge of the Maine Climate Council and its Working Groups
- Provided feedback on a draft Work Plan outline
- Provided feedback on questions from the Science and Technical Subcommittee
- Begun to get to know one another
- Provided an opportunity for public input

Agenda

What	When
Initial Welcome and Agenda Review - Jo D. Saffeir (facilitator) Welcome – Amanda Beal & Tom Abello (co-chairs)	9:00 - 9:15
Administrative Details: Meeting dates, time, location Starting and ending, group size Draft Ground Rules for feedback FOIA Public meetings	9:15 - 9:30
Introductions	9:30 - 10:15
Discussion of Natural and Working Lands Working Group Scope	10:15 - 10:45
Discussion of Draft Work Plan (based on meeting schedule)	10:45 - 11:15

Science and Technical Committee Question Feedback What are priority information needs that you have about Maine's changing climate to make mitigation and adaptation recommendations? We are particularly interested in sector-specific information needs, and weather or other statistics that are derived for specific purposes. What are critical gaps in our knowledge of Maine weather/climate/effects that your WG is already aware of but considers a high priority to highlight this year? Are there research priorities about the weather/climate/effects that your WG sees as important to address in the next several years to inform the subsequent Maine Climate Action Plan due in 2024?	11:15 - 11:45
Public Comment	11:45 - 11:55
Next Steps and Next Meeting: Friday, Dec. 6, 1-4 p.m.	11:55 - 12:00